Our Balmoral Hall Family

Balmoral Hall School for Girls

was formed in 1950
by the union of Rupert's Land Girls' School and Riverbend School for Girls.
The school provides a superior education leading to University entrance for girls who live in Winnipeg and beyond its boundaries.
The school colors are green, gold & white.
The school motto, Meliora petens, means "Seeking better things," an aim in life to which all girls are encouraged to aspire.

Editorial

Balmoral Hall is a family of students, teachers and administrators who all share one common goal: "Seeking Better Things." Its size - just over 300 girls - allows every student to pursue her own interests both academically and in extracurricular activities. She can be a leader, an initiator, or a follower as so she chooses. Our school is laughter, the warmth of happy voices around the halls and a sharing of life. Each is secure because each is cherished, where cares are lightened with loving words and where joy is relived again and again.

In Optima Anni '78 we have tried to create an image of this our Balmoral Hall Family, and its life both within and without the halls. Being a member is not just a 9:00-4:00 commitment. The school is constantly occupied even after the dismissal bell rings, whether it be with Inter-School sports, yearbook(!), drama, residence life, or what have you.

It is with warm and special appreciation that I thank those who have been deeply involved with the production of Optima Anni: My staff, especially those who stuck with me to the end (remember our smorgasbord picnics, the unexpected fire alarm, and burning the midnight candle at both ends?); our advisors Mrs. Sures, Mrs. Barker and Mrs. Friesen; and our representative from ICP Russ Erskine - all who have been so helpful and encouraging. Thanks also goes to those many people behind-the-scenes: Mr. Russell, Mrs. Lammiman, Mrs. Honey, and Miss Sharman to name a few.

The Balmoral Hall Graduate is trained in "Life Skills." She can understand the definition of education, the meaning of responsibility and participation, and she can gain insight into her dealings with herself and other people. On behalf of the student body I would like to extend my heartfelt best wishes to the Class of '78. May this edition of Optima Anni create many laughs and smiles today and in years to come. Memory is a garden in which the future grows, and may your reminiscences of your last year at Balmoral Hall yield a plentiful harvest. We'll miss you! God Bless.

And now Miss Sharman, Graduates, Staff, Students and Friends, especially for You, I present "OUR YEAR"- - - -

Heather Provis.

The Editor, Heather Provis, with Miss B. Sharman, to whom this edition of Optima Anni is dedicated.

Dedication

We dedicate this edition of Optima Anni to Miss Beverley Sharman, whose association with the Headmasters and Mistresses, staffs, students and friends of Rupertsland and Balmoral Hall, has spanned many years. Though she considers them "too many to count", she describes her alliance with our family as being "a very happy one."

Miss Sharman is known throughout the school today as being the artist whose scripture writing adorns placards, diplomas and yes, even the title page of this yearbook. May your friendship with our family continue for many years, both through your endeavors with the Alumnae Association, and through your numerous personal contacts.

Headmaster's Message

It is the last day of January and already the Editor is asking for my Headmaster's message. So, here goes! !

I don't know how many times I have told Parents, Staff, Board Members, and Friends that to date we are having an extremely good year. Everyone who knows what is going on around our hallowed halls (in the main I refer to the girls) agrees with me. Surely, we can't all be wrong! !

This year I have been particularly pleased with the attitude of our STUDENTS. Positive, not negative: Constructive, not destructive . . . A healthy respect for what B.H. stands for pervades our community. After all is said and done . . . A school is not bricks and mortar, books and binders, playing fields and gymnasiums (or what have you) but PEOPLE. We have some fine young people around the place and they make the school what it is today . . . A school of which we can all be proud.

I am truly proud of our achievements this year. I am proud of the way the school is developing. I am proud to be the Head of a fine "Family" of people.

To those of you who are leaving us this School Year, I say . . . (The words are Kipling's, of course).

"If you can dream - and not make dreams your master;
If you can think - and not make thoughts your aim;
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster . . ."
. . . you'll do WELL in life.

Good Luck!
Come back and see us sometime.

N. Thomas Russell,
Headmaster.

Headgirl and School Captain Report

Headgirl: Kim Thomas
School Captain: Biddy McDonald

It seems to us, that the year 1977-1978 was a busy year in many aspects. In the art world there was the King Tut exhibit in Chicago, the scandal of C.F. Frye, and of course the world famous Balmoral Hall Ice Sculpture Competition. On the music scene there was the new Broadway musicale "Timbuktu," disco fever, and the grand opening of the "Gift of the Sun" an operetta put on by an all-star cast from Balmoral Hall. And who could ever forget our exciting Spirit Week in March, where during one Mufti Day the Grade 12's looked like Roy Rogers (good guys dressed in white) while the Grade 11's looked like they were holding a competition for a "Black Bart Look-a-like Contest."

Where does the time go? It seems like just days ago, when we were all sitting in the gym for our first assembly of the year, with the new girls looking ill at ease in their "normal" clothes, while we old girls greeted each other commenting on new hair styles and comparing tans. Now we can't separate the old girls from the new girls, no matter how hard we try. Everyone has come together to form the student body for the 77-78 school year.

We hope that it has been a good year for everyone. We both agree that we will never forget, for who could forget things like the Queen visiting the B.H. picnic, tea and coffee in the Common room, and all that homework! Plus house games and everything else that has made this year one of the best school years.

As we go our separate ways "Seeking Better Things" in the "big world" we hope that the enthusiasm which we have found so strong in this school will continue in the same manner, and that you too will strive for better things. Keep smiling! Yahoo!

Ruth's Report

And yet we have another year of memories for the halls and rooms of Dalton House to absorb. This year being no exception, Residence has had more than its share of them. Between broom duals and midnight races in the hallways, Residence has continued to be the constant center of infectious laughter, incessant giggling and non-stop chatter.

Res. is a real cultural center and I feel a lot of us have gained through our association with our foreign friends.

The activities in Res. included such things as horseback riding, swimming and a riverboat cruise. The day-to-day activities within Res. include battles over the television and phone, haphazard ping-pong and cross-country skiing.

All in all, Res. has proven to be most interesting this year. Best of everything to all of you always!

Peace and Sunshine.

Special Awards '77

Last year the awards had no name . . .
- Let the film-makers have their Oscars, Emmies (T.V.), Toni (Broadway).
- Record makers their Grammy awards.
What shall we call ours: I wondered . . .

THE TOMMY AWARDS
(I had to RUSSELL up something!)

Then again . . .
We can't afford silver, or bronze or marble statues, or golden discs . . .
Here is our Award! Our winners will not only be the TALK of the town, but the TOAST of the town . . . or, if you wish . . .
We don't ROAST our award winners, we TOAST them, and, you will also note:
We have no prejudices - some are white some are brown
some black
(maybe you'll think this a little overdone!)
You may think the award somewhat corny! It proves beyond all shadow of doubt that our girls are well BRED: they are a CUT about the average.
So . . . LET THE CRUMBS FALL WHERE THEY MAY . . . Here are the awards which represent a SLICE OF LIFE at Balmoral Hall.

1. Miss Late 1977 ..... Debbie Dillen
2. Miss Peculiar 1977..... Wendy Matthewson
3. Miss Comic 1977 ..... Lila Christensen
4. Miss Loony 1977 ..... Edith Pease
5. Miss Insomniac 1977..... Barbara Fraser
6. Mrs. Mom 1977 ..... Mrs. E. Alcock
7. Miss Gum chewer ..... Michelle Chabot

I bet you say that to all the girls!

OH! Excuse me for interrupting! !

TO MY HAPPINESS

My life is dismal
Sad and dark.
Across the lands
I look for a spark
Of happiness.

Through the hills
That twist and wind
My happiness
I hope to find
And keep.

Over the fields,
Across the land,
I see the huge
and mighty hand
Of God.

It calls me over
The fields to come
Towards it with all
My strength. I run -
To my happiness.

SNOW

Something white
Fell in the night
No! No! No! it couldn't be snow.

Something soft
Fell from aloft.
What could it be so white in the tree?

Something cold - brew like a mold?
Reminds me of Christmases

In the igloos
Polar bears snooze,
Dreaming of starving Eskimos.

THE DEER

A deer is so swift,
A deer is so fast,
When I come towards it,
it swiftly runs past.

I try to be quiet,
I try to be calm,
But when I come close,
it's sure to be gone.

HAIR

There are many types of hair. There's brown hair, black hair, blonde hair, red hair, curly hair, wavy hair, straight hair, fuzzy hair and nondescript hair.
I pity people who don't have any hair. They have nothing to comb, wash, brush, dry, cut or tangle. Although hair can be very enhancing, it can also get in the way. I'll never forget the time I climbed one of our trees, then jumped out, but my hair didn't. Hair can also be pulled, matted or burnt.
Some people will try anything to improve their hair. They fall for the "New Improved" products, the "PH Balanced" ones too, the "Non-alkaline" things and "Super Conditioning" stuff. Besides people, dogs, cats, horses, pigs, cows, mice, foxes, deer, and bears have hair, to name a few.
Indians, Japanese, and Chinese generally have black hair, while Swedes mostly have blonde and quite a few Irish have red. Hair can be tinted, streaked, frosted or dyed to change its colour. Hair gets cussed at, mussed up and fussed over. I wonder if they 'll ever get to the root of the problem!

REMEMBRANCE

What is it?
The day that is today:
The eleventh hour;
of the eleventh day;
of the eleventh month.

Who are they?
These people,
The people we honor,
The people who died,
The people who fought for us?

What is it?
It is a day of remembrance,
A day to remember those gone,
For they fought for our future,
For our chance of life again.

Who are they?
They are people;
They are fathers;
They are brothers;
And they are sons.

This is Remembrance Day,
A day to honour those gone,
Those gone before us.
They are gone;
They will never come back.

BLOBS OF BLOOD

Spiders creeping up the hall leaving traces on the wall.
Blood is pouring from their eyes,
letting all the spirits rise.

Bloody blobs pour down like rain,
all happiness is now in pain.
Snakes will crawl through little holes,
and ugly creatures, just like moles.
Killer bees cover up your home,
but still the blood just rains and pours.

With wounded, moaning.

One remembers
The heartbreak
Of friends, dying.

One remembers
The pain,
Of murdering.

One remembers,
A nightmare.

THE OLD MAN AND THE FISH

The old man slowly made his way among the rocks on the beach. He was stiff and old and had to be careful where he stepped. He had not been for a walk on the beach in many, many years and the warm sun and fresh air made him feel young again.

Seagulls cried above him in the cloudless sky. He paused for a moment to look up at them, squinting in the bright sunlight and marvelling at their gracefulness and beauty. Waves rolled on to the rocks and broke into a white froth. The old man felt the spray touch his wrinkled cheeks as he stared out at the endless ocean.

Suddenly, he noticed that an especially large wave had left a small fish squirming on the stones. It flipped about, trying to find the water it needed for life. The gray-headed man felt a strong compassion for this tiny creature, so helpless and defenceless.

He bent over, straining every muscle in his tired back. His aged legs shook under the sudden exercise as he leaned over farther and farther. He stopped a moment to steady himself and then extended his arm towards the little animal. He gently picked it up between his knarled fingers. For a moment he watched it lying in his palm. He saw its tiny body shimmering in the sun's rays and its small black eyes blinking in fear.

The old man tossed the tiny fish as far as he could. It hit the surface about five feet from the waterline and disappeared beneath the surface.

The man smiled to himself.

THE ALLEY

Dark stone walls enclose the alley, blocking the sun and preventing the sounds of the outside world from entering. Rats scamper across the cracked cement through which scraggy weeds grow, fighting for room with the discarded wrappers, tin cans, and broken bottles. Black, sinister windows stare out blankly at the battered trash cans that stand sentinel at forbidding doors. A bunch of flowers lie limp on the waste, their heads drooping, seemingly unable to bear the rancid smell which rises from beneath them. From amongst the pile of debris, rats' beady eyes stare menacingly, then resume their search for edible morsels. Flies swarm around a dog's waste. Obscene words scrawled over the grey walls curse their sordid world. Only near the end of the alley does the rumble of traffic penetrate the silence. A different life goes on outside the alley; the sun shines; people laugh.

So tiny, so helpless, so misunderstood
Perched so precariously on my wall.

I looked to him; he fitted so well;
I knew to my jail he belonged.
I wanted him there; I'd force him to stay.
"God, give me the strength to be strong."

I smiled quite warmly at my new-found friend,
For friends we were destined to be.
Then slowly my smile melted down to a frown,
For he failed to smile back at me.

Maddened by loneliness, threatened by love,
I called out desperately,
"Hello, my friend! How goes life? "
He glanced back, pitying me.

With one quick swipe the deed was done;
My "friend" lay crushed and quite dead.
I was left weeping disconsolately,
Mourning the death of a friend.

And now whenever I happen to glance
At that unfortunate spot on the wall,
I can't help but to think that I proved to be
My dearest friend's downfall.

THE GOSSIP

The neighbour lady was-a-walkin,
She was also talkin,
She was walkin'
And talkin'
And talkin'
And walkin'
An finally,
She b'came so pooped
She sat right down
An turned aroun'
And she whispered
And-a-crawled
And-a-crawled
And-a-whispered
'Til she had rested up enough
To go on-a-walkin'
And-a-talkin'
And-a-talkin'
And-a-walkin'.

CELEBRATION
AROUND THE SOLAR SYSTEM

Firecrackers shooting up to space,
Spreading across at a steady pace.
Robots glistening in the dark,
Their headlights beaming like tiny sparks.

One step here, and one step there,
Speeding so fast, it's like flying in air.
All the planets keeping in the race,
All of them in orbit, celebrating space.

THOUGHTS

here I am staring at a blank page that shouldn't be
it should be covered with thoughts thoughts that are dying to be heard to be laughed at
to be cried about instead they stay stubbornly trapped in the maze of my mind
maybe it's just as well
they really wouldn't be of any interest to anyone they're just my thoughts

SI J'ETAIS RICHE

Si j'étais riche
Qu'est-ce que je ferais?
Cette question est difficile
Parce que où peux-je commencer?

Si j'étais riche
je ferais beaucoup d'achats et peut-être j'achèterais vingt ou trente beaux chats.

Si j'étais riche
quand j'aurais faim
je mangerais du caviar
pas de beurre ni pain.

Si j'étais riche

j'achèterais un peu trop d'autres choses que je pourrais!

This year the basketball team was very small, but we had a great time. We nearly made it to the Provincials. We have decided that everyone's project this summer is to grow at least 3 inches. So good luck and thanks to Mr. Jones.

The Freshman Volleyball Team had a great year with lots of fun. We certainly enjoyed all our games and put up a good fight.

Westgate gave us a real challenge, although we did manage to beat them a few times. Unfortunately, we lost to them in the semi-finals.

We mustn't forget our cheering squad - thanks a lot, girls! Thanks also go to all the dedicated bench riders, and a very special "thank you" is extended to our coach, Mrs. Harper.

Sports Captain's Report

I think that we all feel that '77-'78 has been a super year all around, including the Sports program. We were pleased to play games for an entire afternoon instead of the previous schedule, which had us doing Sports for a little while at noon-hour. After spending much time and energy doing laps around the gym, the girls found Day 3 afternoons enjoyable, although compulsory.

Day 4 lunch breaks were always eagerly anticipated by the Sports Council because of the sweet surprises provided by the houses. This time was used to discuss the previous day as well as the up-coming events.

I give Mrs. Harper and the Sports Council much credit for all of their enthusiasm and support. Mrs. Harper and I enjoyed working together as a team, and we both feel that the Sports program this year has been a success.

Congratulations to Vicki Guy, who was elected the Sports Captain for next year. Good Luck!

Ballater

Fellow Ballaterites - Another year of Sports activities has come to an end and once again it's time to empty your lockers of smelly green shorts, shirts and socks. But as you drag the contents of your laundry bag home (for mum to wash), you all may be secure in the knowledge that Ballater has had an astoundingly booming year.

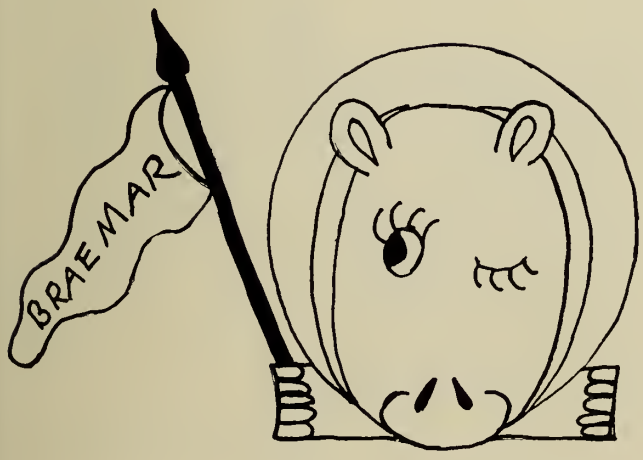
The new system has been an overwhelming success due to the diligent efforts of Mrs. Harper, Barb and the Sports Council. But this accomplishment has been intensified only because everybody has finally "discovered" that sports are actually fun and that there really is no reason to gripe and grumble!

It's our genuine "fresh green" spirit that deserves not only my congratulations, but a "thank-you" for displaying eager cooperation. Special gratitude is acknowledged, especially to Nicola Murray, Anne Haworth and Elizabeth Coughlin, who assiduously organized the 9 & 10, 7 & 8, and Junior teams respectively.

Intramural sports have prospered tremendously since their institution at B.H., and the "Green Machine" is just revving its 700 h.p. engine up! Here's a "Good-bye" to those greenie graduates - remember to wear your Ballater T-shirt wherever you go - and to those returning, remember that Ballater's reign has only just begun! Here's to Bliss and Victory!

Love,
Heather Provis

Braemar



This year is over, and what a great year it has been, both spiritwise and for fun. I'd like to thank Judy, Joanna and Heidi for the fabulous jobs they all did, and I'm sure you 'll all agree that they did do really well.

Lastly, I'd like to thank all Braemarites for doing such a great job and for sticking around on the second-last day of school for pictures (ahem). The surprise birthday cake and the gift of Bernie that I received at the end of the year were greatly appreciated.

Oh-I have a message for you all from Bernadette-she wants you all to have a great summer and get all rested up so we can walk away with all the winnings next year. She also told me to tell you that this year's bunch of Braemarites have been the best bunch that she has ever worked with.

See ya all next year,
Good Luck
Love,
Pam Stevens and Bernadette.

Craig Gowan

This has been a super year in all respects. Craig Gowan won the volleyball trophy, badminton, tennis, paddleball, and baseball awards, and topped all that off by winning the house trophy. All of these awards are the result of the mutual cooperation and spirit found in Craig Gowanites.

As I graduate from Balmoral Hall, I would like to say that this year as your househead was the best year of my life. The enthusiasm, consideration, and participation of all were tremendous, I am proud to have been a member of Craig Gowan.

We deserved the house trophy, and as the best house we're going to keep on winning!

Love, Andrea Clarke

Glen Gairn

Hi Glen Gairnites! ! !

It only took a little bit of screaming, kicking, and shoving to obtain the best attendance record in senior school. And even when we didn't win, we gave the other houses a run for their money and nearly deafened them with our screams. We cleaned up in the photo contest and we always live up to our colour, whether it be red faces or sun burns.

I would like to thank Kim Merkley, our Junior School lieutenant, Andrea Reyes and especially Marilyn Law. I would also like to thank Sheena Sharp who is our house artist.

Next year, I hope we kill all the other houses with the help of our grizzly bear, Winnie the Pooh! !

Lots of Love,
Vicki Guy

Badminton

Badminton at B.H. this year proved to be a great success. It gave those girls involved a chance to smash things at the teachers, and be congratulated for it.

In the Zone, our girls fared very well. Susan Mulvaney placed second in singles, and the dynamic duo of Vicki Guy and Andrea Wood placed first in doubles. This team proceeded to the provincials where they represented our school enthusiastically and expertly.

Congratulations to all members on the team, and Good Luck next year!

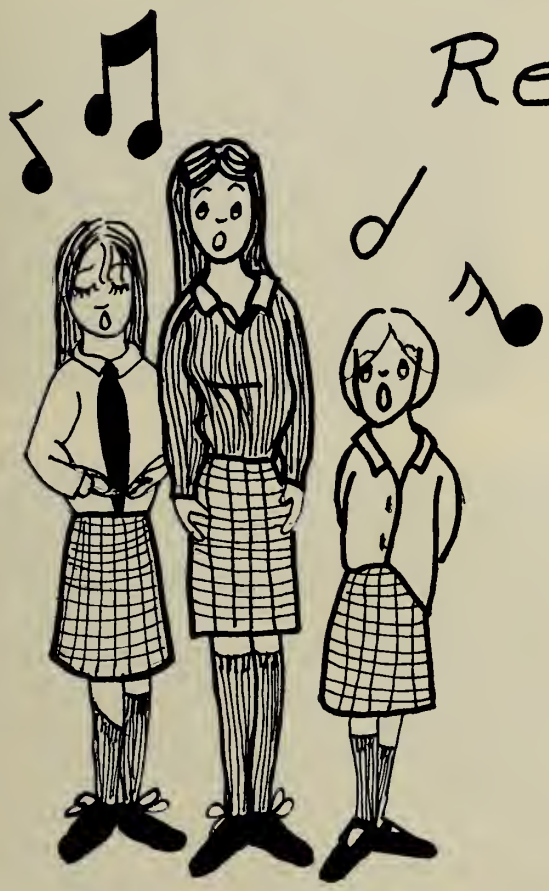
Participation and Recreation



Junior School Clubs and Activities

This year, the girls in Grades 4 - 6 participated in a variety of clubs and activities. One of these, the Book Club, composed a book entitled "An Anthology of This, That and the Other Thing". Under the direction of Mrs. Burron, Mrs. Setter and Mrs. Richards, the girls produced a collection of poems and stories for our library.

The Outdoor Activities Club participated in such sports as skiing, skating and snow-shoeing. Mrs. Russell and Mrs. Wilmot kept the girls occupied, either in the park or B.H.'s own backyard.

The Rug-Hooking Club was instructed in the various methods of hooking rugs by Mrs. Klymkiw. The Babysitting Club was also successful, as the girls were rewarded for their efforts with certificates. The club was run by Mrs. Richards, and dealt with many areas of child care.

"An Anthology of This, That and the Other Thing."

The school Patrols are a very important part of school safety. The eleven Grade 6 girls that composed the Patrol aptly handled their responsibility of ushering G.H. gals across Westminster and Langside to safety. Congratulations on a job well done!

The Patrols were:
Mary Joanne Setter (Captain)
Michele Provis (Lieutenant)
Jane Gillies
Shelley Gardiner
Mary Lea Horbay
Jennifer Rattray
Fay Faridy
Elizabeth Coughlin
Heidi McDonald
Andrea Osborn
Sarah Kay

The Junior School girls that were successful in the city-wide French Competition were:
Jennifer Soward
Michele Hull
Sonya Gupta
Sandra Seier
Barbara Queen
Fay Faridy

The Gift of the Sun

Under the excellent direction of Mrs. Nesbitt and through the hardwork of several teachers, this year's junior operetta was a huge success. All the junior grade levels were involved in the production, and they enjoyed themselves very much. The operetta was about some Indians from another land who learned to keep warm at night by using fire.

Senior Clubs and Activities

This the choir had a very successful year under the direction of Mrs. Nesbitt and Loreena McKennit. They had a lot of fun putting together something for the Christmas Service. May Day, and Closing Exercises, and everyone will agree they did a great job.

Public Speaking and Debating

Formed late, the club made an auspicious start. Girls entered in the Junior High section of the Douglas Campell Public Speaking Contest Congratulations go to Joanna Cotton on bringing home the trophy to Balmoral Hall, and to all the girls who participated. Emily Butler, with a partner from Grant Park, won both the best single speaker awards and the best team in the Provincial Junior High School Debating Tournament. Well done, Emily! Both these activities can be a lot of fun, and we are already making plans for next year. Perhaps you'd like to join us!

Joanna Cotton's Award-Winning Speech.

Mr. Russell, teachers and fellow students. My topic for today is "Parents Should Be Seen and Not Heard".

As the daughter of two parents, I would like to give my feelings on the subject - I fully agree!

How many times have you been told to clean your room - many I'm sure. What about Aunt Doris who hasn't cleaned her house in thirty years? Does mother tell her to clean her house - NO?

Again I stress - "Parents should be seen and not heard".

Parents can be very embarrassing.

As I walked to the U. of W. steps to say my speech, my mother yelled out of the car, "Speak clearly and loudly, dear", in front of dozens of people.

If you are going out with friends do you ever hear this line - "Wear your hat and mitts, dear." Really mother in the middle of June?

One big problem with parents is when they tell me what time to go to bed. Just because Father has had a hard day at the office doesn't mean we all have to go to bed at 7:30!

What about clothes?

"Wear your pretty pink frilly dress, dear, Grandma is coming to dinner". Really, no one wears "pretty, pink, frilly" dresses anymore.

Maybe parents should change places with children and WE could tell them when to go to bed, when to do their homework and what to wear.

In closing, I will say one last time.

"Parents should be seen and not heard".

Silver Jubilee Barbeque

QUEEN'S ADDRESS

My husband and I wish you, and all members of the Commonwealth countries, a very happy Jubilee Barbecue. This year has been one of both joy and tragedy, and we remember particularly at this time, all those in North Borneo, Puerto Rico, and Flin Flon.

1977 marks the year of my Cherries Jub . . .Silver Jubilee, and I have fond memories of my twenty-five years on the throne-for which I have a new, quilted, silver cushion.

People in all parts of the world have honoured this event in many different ways-some more different than others.

I feel close to you all in Canada, particularly with our son Andrew at school in your midst. However, if he does not pull his royal socks up, he will be sent to an ice flow in the Arctic to write the next episode of "Upstairs, Downstairs".

My family and I enjoyed being with you all for the Games of the Twenty-First Olympaid, in Montreal last year. I feel, personally, that Anne would have been much more competent in the saddle, had she refrained from eating so much French Onion Soup. But, as the Common Market would state-and I quote - "C'est la Vie".

My husband gives me much pleasure. . . in accompanying me on a Jubilee tour of the Southern Hemisphere, where we saw the usual herds of kangaroos; koala bears; and platypus. . .etc.

We were proud when we learned that our son Charles has become Chief Crowfoot in Alberta. I do wish, however, that he would refrain from using the Palace curtains as a tepee.

Balmoral Hall conjures up visions of one of my homes so dear to me. In the Highlands of Scotland, amid the swirl of the Kilt and the purple of the heather, lies my home at the address of thirty-one, Haggis Crescent, also known as Balmoral Castle. Here I am able to relax and pursue such pleasures as sword dancing; highland flinging; and the tossing of the caber. I hope thay you have equal enjoyments here at Balmoral Hall.

And now, my children, join my husband and I in wishing you every joy and happiness at your Jubilee Barbecue.

Copyright; Jane Burpee 1977. (Written by one who is an ardent admirer of the Queen; her family and all they stand for).

This dance is TERRIFIC! ! ! ! !

Mart Kenney

The Mothers Auxiliary's largest fund-raising event of the year occurred on Saturday, May 6, 1978, at the Winnipeg Inn. Its tremendous success was largely due to the organizational ability of the dance committee, chaired by Mrs. J. D. Shanski. The following mothers worked with Mrs. Shanski, and all should be thanked and congratulated:
Mrs. T. W. Sidebottom, Mrs. A. E. Rattray,
Mrs. D. O. Wood, Mrs. A. E. Choptain,
Mrs. J. A. Marsh, Mrs. B. D. Roberts,
Mrs. J. E. Matthews, Mrs. J. R. Messenger,
Mrs. J. E. Hinchliffe, Mrs. C.N.B. Mason,
Mrs. H. Fogel, Mrs. W. S. Ritchie,
Mrs. J. N. Gillies, Mrs. H. S. Provis,
Mrs. I. L. Jessiman, and the Advisor,
Mrs. N. T. Russell.

As well as the dance itself, an important fund-raiser that took place the same evening was the Silent Auction. The profits far exceeded those of the previous Auctions, largely because of the wide scope of assorted objects - everything from paintings to rent-a-Cadillac, from rib-eye steaks to rent-a-Spanish Villa. The pieces put up for bid were assiduously collected by a committee chaired by Mr. G. de Jardin, including Mr. E. Coughlin, Mr. P. McDonald, Mr. J. Shanski, Mr. J. E. Hinchliffe and Mr. R. E. Rivalin.

DIPLOMA
Graduation and Celebration
H.K.

1978 Graduates: Mary Grace, Agnes, Barbara,

MARY GRACE ASHDOWN, BOTTOM LEFT: Our friendly librarian could be seen Friday mornings handing out hymn books. When we first asked Gracie what her plans concerning next year were, she wouldn't tell us. But we found out from a reliable source that she has applied at Guelph University and Red River Community College for Hotel Admin. Besides excelling in badminton, she has admirable represented the school at Eaton's. After nine years at the school, her willingness to help will be missed. Good Luck, Mary Grace! . . .

AGNES BORBELY, BOTTOM RIGHT: Our most fluent Hungarian frog came to B.H. in Grade one. Since then she has shown her artistic flair by not only painting drama sets, and doing make-up, but she has been in art classes for as long as anyone can remember. Even though our runners couldn't compete with her flashing red boots, she sparked up our Phys. Ed. classes with her Hungarian dances. Agnes isn't certain about her future plans, but our shutterbug is working at Sooter Photos. Good Luck Agi, whatever you do you'll be great, you brain. By the way, we're still waiting for our perogy party! ! ! . . .

BARBARA BROUSSEAU, TOP RIGHT: Our most ardent complainer, Bobo often snuck out for refreshments. Last year's best athlete and this year's Sports Captain, her favorite saying was "I can't stand it anymore"! Barbara Marie has a dual personality - at school she is calm, cool and collected, but at night she terrorizes! Coke is planning to take Commerce at Trent next year. Barb could've done the Volks advertisement because she can stuff more people in a car than they can! Good Luck, Bubla! Hope you can find your nirvana! . .

ANDREA CLARKE, TOP LEFT: This year's Craig Gowan's Head managed to miss her own meetings. Andy set the school record for blushing and won an award for this amazing feat. The only time "good" little Andrea got into trouble occurred when her boyfriend from Petersfield met her boyfriend from Winnipeg. Andrea became the second Pinky Tuscadaro on the back of A. G.'s motorcycle! Andy will be seen running around campus at U. of M. next year when she heads into Arts there. One little bit of advice Andy - it's not a good idea to pretend you can't ski, just to get a date with the ski instructor! ! See ya! ! !

Andrea, Cathie, Maria, Lisa, Margaret,

CATHERINE COUGHLIN, BOTTOM RIGHT: Sing came to B.H. from (horrors!) St. Mary's Academy, in grade nine. This darling of the Phys. Ed. class was either passing out or keeping us in stitches with her burpees. A brain in Math, her favorite oke was "What upset 6. . .when 7, 8, 9"! ! Cathie's planning to take Commerce at Queens next year, and hopes to become a chartered accountant. Cathie can be found laughing around her pool, or slaving at Canadian Tire. Best of luck next year, but remember - Stay Calm! ! ! . . .

MARIA DOMINIQUE, BOTTOM LEFT: Seeing that Maria has applied to so many Universities, we have come to the conclusion that she is going to become a professional student. She plans to start at McGill and work her way up to Law. Maria proved to be a bit too knowledgeable concerning History, and as a result, Mrs. Sharpe's nerves will never be the same. Maria is very politically oriented and is a member of the executive council for the Youth P.C.'s. Good Luck Maria, and have a good time at all of those Universities! ! ! . . .

LISA EVANS, TOP LEFT: Will Lisa be able to transfer her collection of wine bottles to U. of Toronto next year? Only if she empties them first! A one time Head of Craig Gowan, Lisa has been an active basketball and volleyball player, since she came to B.H. in grade six. When she wasn't playing, she was cheering her team mates on to victory. In Art, her forte was wine bottles (what else?), but she did just as well with the rest of the course, even though hari-cari occasionally loomed on the horizon. Good Luck in Mississauga next year, and may the Farce - uh, force be with you! ! . . .

MARGARET GIBBONS, TOP RIGHT: Margaret the Brain wandered in for Grade Twelve, and has been astounding the Maths and Physics classes ever since. Mrs. Sabbadini has been in seventh heaven since she found someone who can relate to the conservation of Momentum Theorem. Margaret can be found hitting the town with the Great A&W Rootbear several times a week, and making pizza at Jeanne's. Margaret is planning to take engineering at U. of M. next year. Good Luck, and while this might come as a surprise, a reliable source told us that you have to study at University!

Thanks, MRS. J.M. KILGOUR.

Jeanne, Anna, Laura, Ruth, Wendie,

ANNA LING, BOTTOM LEFT: Anna was always ready to face the day with a smile. Quiet and studious, Anna seemed to know more than the teachers! (Have you taken this before, Anna?) We do not know exactly what this little Math brain is planning to do next year, but she is sure to succeed at whatever she chooses to take. Good Luck Anna, and keep smiling! . . .

LAURA MAGUIRE, BOTTOM CENTRE: Miss Socialite at B.H., a real item, can be found at U. of M. socials. Laura's fav saying is "What're ya' doing"? , but we're sure it wasn't Housegames, because she had a natural aversion to them. We think that Laura is planning tc build a house in Assiniboine Park, because she spends enough time there. "Hogan Darling, don't worry - Bierlin will be saved and Twilly won't mind". Good Luck taking Archaeology at Wilfred Laurier next year. But remember - Mummy won't be there to kill the bees! ! . .

JEANNE GRIFFIN, MISSING: Jeanne, Jeanne the dancing machine, boogied in from Darlingford to jive with the B.I.T. Clan. Her favorite song was "If I can't have you I'll take anybody, Baby". Who can forget her and Goey with roses between their teeth serenading us at her weird after-exam parties? Jeanne plans to become an "Aggie" at U. of M., next year, and eventually a vet. We have bad news for you - you have to take French! Bonne Chance Bebé! ! . . .

WENDIE MATHEWSON, BOTTOM RIGHT: Our big ball of sunshine came to us from Edmonton in '76. Wendiferousisanski XXIV, or better known as "Quand", enveloped people with a great big "Howdy "! Not only was Wendi on all the athletic teams, she even managed to play her flute in the school band and choir. History proved to be Wendie's favorite subject (eh Wendie? ? heh! heh!) Wendie hopes to open a B.H. green-sock factory, but until then she'll settle for skiing and U. of Alberta. Good Luck, you little Yahoo! ! ! . .

RUTH MARKHAM, TOP: Ruth was the only girl who managed to break the monotony by having a different hairstyle everyday. We can picture Root in the future as a great poet, for she is extremely talented in this area. This year's Head of Residence was known as a walking dress-shop. Ruth's clothes were always on display on various bodies at S.J.R. dances. Ruth hopes to go to Trent and major in English. Best of Luck in the future, Ruth! . . .

Biddy, Susan, Mabel, Cathy,

ELIZABETH McDONALD, SECOND LEFT: "Anyways", Biddy-Baby was our School Captain this year. Our avid Drama freak, Biddy, and the Drama fencer got along just fine. Her endless enthusiasm for B.H. kept our school spirit at its highest this year. Biddy's hair will never recover after thirteen years of continual twisting. As Braemar's Head in '77, Biddy's attempt at entering every event in Track & Field Day was admirable, if not fool-hardy. We hope to see Biddy on Broadway soon, when she makes her debut in her own show. Until then its either York University or England for (what else?) Drama! Best of Luck Sarah Bernhart II.

SUSAN McGOEY, SECOND RIGHT: The Party Award for '78 goes to Goey. Why, may you ask? Because of her outstanding ability to stay up the latest, consume and inhale the most. We think that Sue loved nature, because she spent a lot of time under the gym stairs. Who will ever forget the well-known rendition of "Bo-Diddley" on the Ski trips? McGoey plans to attend U. of M. next year, or perhaps enter the working world. Good Luck Suey, see ya' around town! ! ! . . .

MABEL NING, FAR LEFT: From the exotic Far East came "Able Mabel", to be the Grade Twelve Vice-President. Mabel, a gourmet in Chinese cooking, got her jollies making fun of Chris' culinary attempts! Mabel is not only a competent Math student, but she's also quicker than O.J. Simpson on the badminton courts. Mabel plans to go to U. of M. or Ryerson for Business Admin. We wish you Luck in the future, Mabel. . .

CATHERINE OSLER, FAR RIGHT: Cathy, alias Henry Gibson, seemed to have a passion for flowers. Cathy was extremely quiet, and a hardworker. In Grade six, Cathy was the tallest Indian in our cardboard canoe, and she has remained the tallest ever since. Cathy's rule is "Silence is Golden", and she hasn't broken it in her seven years at B.H. Cathy plans to become the next Margaret Mead as she enters Anthropology at U. of M. Good Luck! ! . . .

Thanks, MISS C. PROVIS.

Panee, Jane, Kim, Heather,

PANEE SETHIWAN, SECOND LEFT: Panee flew in from Bankok, Thailand to brighten our lives last year. She mystified us with her ability to read palms, feet and earlobes. Panee, you can't ask what a 3 neuron arc is on a Biology exam! Pip was in Ballater, and she brained a lot of people with her badminton smashes. Panee plans to go to Simon Fraser University to take Badminton, uh - Business Admin. We wish you the Best of Luck, Panee! ! ! . . .

JANE THEODORE, FAR RIGHT: Ted came to B.H. in grade nine, and she's still wearing the same black shoes that she wore on her first day here. Jane's greatest musical triumph arrived when she landed the part of Snow White in the audience! It quickly became apparent that Art was Jane-a-Belle's strongest forté, while Math was her nemisis. Last year she was Head of the winning house, Glen Gairn, even though she had an aversion to the job. (Squire's anyone)? Jane was one of the few accepted into the Red River Advertising Art Program. Good Luck, J. T.! . . .

KIM THOMAS, SECOND RIGHT: Kimberly Kay was our "froggie" Head Girl this year. Her yankee accent kept us in stitches during her first year in "Canada". Kimba fit right into B.H. right from the start. A natural leader, Kim was Sports Captain last year and was active in Craig Gowan's activities. (No, Craig is not a guy)! She could be seen on the basketball court at any time until that unfortunate night when she tripped over her big feet and wrecked her ankle. Kim is going into Commerce next year, and then on to Law. (By the way, while at U. of M., learn the Canadian anthem because we're sick of the Star-Spangled Banner)! ! . . .

HEATHER UPCOTT, FAR LEFT: This was Heather's first year at B.H. She aroused our curiosity in Math class with her dared expression which was due to the Sony Co. Heather was really into Yoga, and could in weird and unnatural positions before gym class. The Geology department at U. of M. will be gaining a new speciman when Heather reports there next year. Good Luck! ! . . .

Valedictory Address

Good Afternoon, Friends, Staff and Students of Balmoral Hall.

For the past month, I have been threatening my classmates with the idea that I'm going to stand up here and tell jokes. They have been alternately aghast, frightened and encouraging. But as the significance of this occasion has finally occurred to me, after the exams, the celebrations following the exams and the rehearsal of this important event, I realize what is finally going to happen: We the Class of '78 are going to graduate.

It has been a long haul, as anyone sitting in these front few pews will tell you. We have cried, laughed, behaved and misbehaved for the last year in this school. We laughed when Cathie Coughlin did her burpees, while we cried when our classmate, Nicole Schroyer, left us. We have misbehaved in every one of our classes at one point or another, while at other times we have been the model of a perfect class. (The teachers will have to think about that one!)

No matter how long we live, we will never forget our commonroom, where we shared everything, from card games to the latest dances, to our test scores. None of us will ever forget struggling through HAMLET, Jeanne's after-exam parties, Biddy twisting her hair or Andrea going to the park.

I think if our class had a motto, it would be: "One for all, and all for one, so let the good times roll." While that might sound silly or as if we were always having fun, let me set everyone straight. I have never seen such a group which was so concerned about the future. While having fun is great, and school is great, remember life does exist after high school, and it lasts a lot longer. So we are faced with the Herculean task of having a good time while still being serious and concerned with our futures.

If I had any piece of advice which I would pass on to the students of Balmoral Hall, I would tell you to try and reach the perfect balance. Life is short, and everything depends on what you make of it. If you feel like putting a lot of enthusiasm and spirit into your years at B.H., that's exactly what you will come out with. And believe me, that's nothing to scoff at.

So, in making the final farewells for the Class of '78, I would like to say "thank-you" to the teachers and to Mr. Russell, because everything they have done for us has been in our best interests. So "thank-you and good-bye! " Plus a big "Good-luck" to the remaining students, and, yes, it does feel good to walk up that aisle and not trip over your feet or the carpeting!

So, God Save the Queen and being the loyal American that I am, Long Live the U.S.A.!
